

Q1. Define supervised learning. [10 marks]

Supervised learning trains a model on labeled input output pairs so it can predict outputs for new unseen inputs.

Q2. What is overfitting? (8 marks)

Overfitting occurs when a model fits noise in the training data rather than the underlying pattern, which hurts generalisation to new data.